

I can not stand sitting in traffic waiting or trying to find a traffic report on a standard broadcast channel. I drive 45 miles to work. I do not need to spend an additional 10-20 minutes sitting in traffic because I can not get a traffic report. There is not another station of its type in the DALLAS/FORT WORTH area. If there was then, and only then, would the large broadcast companies have any right to complain